The Friends of Erasmus Darwin House

The Friends exist to support the work of this important 18th century House and its work as a museum and memorial to Dr Erasmus Darwin, scientist, physician, inventor, poet, philosopher, botanist and Grandfather of Evolution - as well as Grandfather of Charles Darwin - and founder member of the Lunar Society.

The Friends help the Erasmus Darwin Foundation to promote the house and garden and their development as an educational centre to further understanding of medicine, science, technology and the arts: all subjects in which Dr Erasmus Darwin excelled.

The Friends assist with the maintenance and equipment of the House as a museum.

We have a varied programme of talks and social events throughout the year and it's a great way to make new friends.

By becoming a Friend you can play an important part in commemorating this great man who lived in Darwin House from 1758 - 1781.
